

SAMPLE WEEKEND ROWING TOUR BASED IN GRAIGUENAMANAGH, CO. KILKENNY
Rowing on the rivers Barrow and Nore.

Day 1 – Friday

Afternoon -Arrive Graiguenamanagh

Check in at Waterside Guesthouse

Short walk on river bank to Silaire Wood and Graiguenamanagh Boathouse

Dinner at Waterside

Accommodation at Waterside

Day 2 – Saturday

Breakfast at Waterside

Row from Graiguenamanagh to St. Mullins along the river Barrow. This includes the unique experience of passing through 4 lock gates on the Barrow navigation. We take a short break for a light lunch at the Mullichain Café on the banks of the river.

After lunch we get back in the boats and row on from St. Mullins down river(now we are in tidal water) to arrive at New Ross Boat club. Transport back to Graiguenamanagh by minibus.

Walking tour of Graiguenamanagh including Cushendale Woollen Mills.

Dinner at Waterside

After dinner repair to the pub for refreshments and possibly traditional Irish music session in the famous Mick Doyle's Pub in Graiguenamanagh

Accommodation at Waterside

Day 3 – Sunday

Breakfast at Waterside

Check out from rooms

Transport to New Ross by Minibus

Row upriver from New Ross along the river Barrow and then into the river Nore we follow on upstream to the beautiful village of Inistioge, Co. Kilkenny.

Lunch in inistioge

The cost of the above during 2015 would be a total of €199.00 per person.

Payment of €169.00 per person to Waterside includes 2 nights bed and breakfast and evening meal.

Lunch day 2 and 3. Transport from New Ross day 2, Transport to New Ross day 3, transport back to Graiguenamanagh. Tour of Cushendale woollen Mills.

Payment of €30.00 per person to Graiguenamanagh Boat Club. This includes membership of Graiguenamanagh Rowing Club for one month. Includes use of the touring quads for the days based at Waterside and of course sculling blades to use with the boats. Transport of the quads by trailer to and from the rowing site on each day.

Further information available from

Brian Roberts

Waterside , Graiguenamanagh

Tel 00353-59-9724246

brian@watersideguesthouse.com